

Haven Haus Therapy Privacy Policy

When accessing our website, Haven Haus Therapy Corp., will learn certain information about you during your visit. How we handle information we learn about you depends upon what you do when visiting the site. If you visit our site to read or download information on our pages, we collect and store only the following information about you:

1. The name of the domain from which you access the Internet;
2. The date and time you access our site; and
3. The Internet address of the website you used to link directly to our site.

If you identify yourself by sending us an email containing personal information, then the information collected will be solely used to respond to your message.

The information collected is for statistical purposes. Haven Haus Therapy Corp., uses software programs to create descriptive statistics, which are used to assess the number of visitors to the different sections of our site, what information is of most and least interest, determining technical design specifications, and identifying system performance or problem areas.

For site security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, Haven Haus Therapy Corp. uses software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload, change information, or otherwise cause damage.

Haven Haus Therapy Corp. will not obtain personally identifying information about you when you visit our site, unless you choose to provide such information to us, nor will such information be sold or otherwise transferred to unaffiliated third parties without the approval of the user at the time of collection.

Implementation of this Policy will be effective as of December 30, 2025.
